CARNIVAL.

Local horsemen are preparing to give a horse show at the Salt Palace beginning Monday, Sept. 12. The saucer track will be converted into a Madison Square Garden for a few days and local society will be given a taste of the real horse show.

There are many fine horses in the city and state, and a creditable show can be given.

H. O. Martin will visit Denver, Kansas City and Cheyenne and endeavor to get owners of fine horses in those cities to contest.

Such famous broncho riders as Brennan, Bowdler, Armstrong, Benham and Gardner will compete for a $500 purse. A steering contest will also be a feature.

Marshall Ben Heywood will oversee the broncho busting contest.

Beldame, Africander Second,
The Picket Third.

Saratoga, Aug. 20.—Beldame, owned by Newton Remington, and a favorite in the betting at 5 to 1, won the principal event of the day, the Saratoga handicap. The horses had gone no more than a furling when Beldame went out in front and was never headed. Africander secured the place after being challenged in the stretch, and The Picket won the big cup and was beaten by only five lengths in front of Saratoga.

First race, seven furlongs—Castellan won, Elliot second, Proceeds third. Time 1:29 1/2.

Second race, steeplechase, full course, about two and one-half miles—St. Jude won, Foxhunter second, Calber third. Time 3:14 1/2.

Third race, The United States Hotel stakes, $10,000, five and one-half furlongs—Woodward 119 (Lyn) 18 to 1, won. Wild Mint 110 (Odum) 7 to 1, second. Flight 107 (Hicks) 10 to 1, third. Time 1:59.

Fourth race, the Saratoga cup, $500, mile and three-quarters—Beldame 105 (O'Neil) 5 to 1, won. Africander 125 (Lyn) 7 to 1, second. The Picket 126 (Lyn) 7 to 1, third. Time 3:03 1/2.

Fifth race, $1000, mile—Caughnawaga and Major Dangerfield also ran. Time 1:34 1/2.

EAGAN GETS THE TITLE

Western Golf Championship Decided Yesterday at Highland Park.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—H. Chandler Egan, at Highland Park today won the western golf championship for the year. He defeated D. E. Sawyer of Wheaton 11 to 3, in the final, 6 to 5, in the 36-hole match. The only other game was the big gallery of golfing enthusiasts who followed the two players through the first two holes. Weather conditions were excellent in the long game when Egan was better invariably than his rival. His short game was invincible and this hard luck turned out to be his victory. He was mostly due to his own erratic work.

Of the subordinate events decided, Walter Egan, the defeated champion, won the Directors' cup from R. L. Ames of Glenview, 2 up, 1 to play. E. Hoyt, another former western champion, won the North Shore cup, defeating R. E. Hunter, 1 up in twenty holes.

Final scores: H. C. Egan, out 4534455455-39 D. E. Sawyer, out 43255555-39 Egan, in 4534455455-39 Sawyer, in 43255555-39

Afternoon: Egan, out 463545554-41 Sawyer, out 446455555-41 Egan, in 463545554-41 Sawyer, in 446455555-41

EUREKA AND PARK CITY
MEET AT PARK TODAY

(Special to The Herald.)

Park City, Aug. 20.—The second game in the ball series between Park City and Eureka teams, which is to be played here, is attracting considerable attention, and is expected to be the largest of the season. The largest crowd of the season will be present to see the game.

The local team played the game in Eureka Sunday, but all who saw the game claim that the Park boys were not up to anything like the level of the game. The excursion train which carried the boys down was delayed on account of a defective engine, and the train did not arrive in Eureka until nearly 4 o'clock. Everything then was hurry and the Park boys were obliged to play the game hurriedly after eating a hearty meal. This time the railroad is guaranteeing to get the Eureka boys here by 12 o'clock, and with the game called at 4, no complaint can be made. The local team has been practicing hard all week and certainly expect to reverse the result of the last game.

CONDITIONS FAVORABLE.

Three Swimmers Attempt to Cross Straits of Dover.

Dover, England, Aug. 20.—Three swimmers are attempting to cross the straits of Dover this year. Montague Holborn, "Jack" Haggerty and S. W. Greaves, Holborn, who has made in the last few years four attempts to swim across the channel, entered the water this morning at 4:30 p. m. today, starting from a point near Lydden Spout, westward of Dover.

Haggerty started from the Admiralty pier here at 7 p. m. in Haggerty's first attempt to cross the channel. Greaves will take the water at high tide, and the three swimmers are expected to reach Cap Gris-Nez, on the French coast, near Boulogne-Sur-Mer, within twenty-four hours, if the weather and conditions are favorable. The sea at night is calm.

There is much popular interest in the attempt, owing largely to the fact that each swimmer represents a London newspaper, and that the three swimmers have been their respective contestants for several weeks. Haggerty and Greaves, on account of his persistence in previous attempts, is perhaps the popular favorite. He is 42 years of age, Haggerty is 38 and Greaves is 32. They have all been in training for some time. Each man will be accompanied by physicians, attendants and reporters in boats and tug, the latter using searchlights during the night.

Turner to Fight Muller.

(Special to The Herald.)

Ozark, Aug. 20.—Rufus Turner arrived tonight from Seattle and signed articles with Barney Muller for a twenty-round contest to take place on the night of Aug. 23 at the Grand opera house. The men to weigh in at 145 pounds. The winner to take 50 per cent and the loser 25 per cent of the net gate receipts.

WILLIE HOGG THE DOCTOR

YOUNG CASTLETON COULDN'T FOOL THE INDIANS.

The present series of ball games between Salt Lake and Spokane is like the war in the east between Japan and Russia. Every day the opposing forces get together and when the smoke of battle clears away it is found that Japan has licked Russia again and that Spokane has done likewise to Salt Lake. This follows a long cablegram from St. Petersburg telling how it happened in the far east and it is up to some one to again tell how it happened down at Walker's field.

Without getting down to the harrowing details it might be well to state at the start that the Elder bunch was licked good and proper in every department of the game. One of these kind of whippersnappers a fellow gives you and then makes you say like this:

Hogg Delivers the Goods.

Willie Hogg was the guiding hand of the Indians yesterday and too much credit can not be given him for the way he held down the rubber from start to finish. There was never a moment when he did not have the game in hand and it should have been a shut out. The reason it was not was Rockenfield's failure to hold Weed's sharp hit squarely in his hand, which would have resulted in a double, retiring the side. But five scattering hits, doing no damage whatever was made off Hogg's delivery, and although he passed five men, he has done away with two men out excepting Muller in the first inning.

Castleton Does Good Work.

Young Castleton, the local amateur, pitched for the Elders and did fairly good work. However the handicap of an amateur battery, Castleton and Seare, was too much for the sorrowful Saints and they accepted the inevitable without even a struggle. In justice to the Elders it must be said that they showed more ginger yesterday than they have done any day this week, which gives the fans hope that there may still be a chance for them to come out of it before the season is over.

Spokane did the work in the following manner in the second. Frary reached first on Clark's failure to hold Bruyette's throw to first. After Reilly flew out, two hits by Holland and Murdoch scored. Frary, in the third, after Hogg fanned, the same thing occurred again. Clark dropped Bruyette's throw of Howlett's grounder and Ferris advanced Howlett to third on a hit to left field. Ferris then stole second and Howlett advanced advanced bases on Rockenfield's long fly to Gimlin. Frary landed out a single scoring Ferris. In the fifth with two out, Ferris singled and stole second and then galloped home on Rockenfield's drive to left.

Delmas Unassisted Double.

The one redeeming feature of the game for the Elders was the remarkable one-handed catch by Delmas, who ran to and completed a double play unassisted.
